Oil & Gas Market Insights

Welcome to the Oil & Gas sector issue of Insights, by DJS Research Ltd.

Market Research Predicts Stable EU Gas Demand

A recent report has suggested that demand for gas in the European Union will remain largely stable in 2012 when compared to 2011. The report also predicts that gas has a long-term part to play in the future of EU energy generation, due to the fact that...Read More.

Figures Show Huge Fall In Petrol Sales

Figures from April to June 2012 show that almost 500 million fewer litres of petrol were sold than in the same period in 2011. It is thought individuals had petrol left over due to panic buying earlier in the year, sparked by potential strikes by tanker drivers. That said, figures for 2012 are still down by 2 billion litres on a comparable period in 2008, just prior to the recession...Read More.

Poll Shows Price Of Fuel Impacting Driving Habits

A study carried out in Northern Ireland has shown that the rising cost of fuel has led more than 4 out of 5 drivers to change their habits. Rising prices have also led to an increase in the number of drivers who say they now shop around for fuel in order to make a saving, as some were spending as much as..Read More.
